

WM CAPITAL GETS MANDATE TO DISTRIBUTE ONE OF THE QUICK TESTS FOR COVID-19 DIAGNOSIS IN EUROPE

The kit supplied by the Chinese company Nanjing Vazyme Medical Technology CO., LTD detects the presence of IgG and IgM antibodies in a few minutes, allowing to identify the positivity of Coronavirus

Milan, 28th april 2020

WM Capital, a company listed on AIM Italia specializing in Business Format Franchising, announces that it has received a mandate from the Chinese company Nanjing Vazyme Medical Technology Co., Ltd, with a production capacity of 500,000 daily kits, for the distribution in Europe of the kit of analysis 2019-nCoV IgG / IgM Detection Kit for the diagnosis of Covid-19.

The test in question uses colloidal gold immuno chromatography to detect the presence of Coronavirus IgG / IgM antibodies in human serum, plasma or whole blood in vitro. The detection of antibodies indicates a new infection and can therefore be used in its early diagnosis. The test provides a response on the presence or absence of antibodies in 10 minutes with specificity and sensitivity greater than 90%.

The kit has received the CE marking and has been registered in the database of the Ministry of Health to be marketed also in Italy.

Fabio Pasquali, CEO of WM Capital SpA, declares: "To facilitate the normal recovery of activities with a view to the greatest possible safety, in line with the measures adopted so far by the Italian government, we have decided to market the serological kit to identify Coronavirus positivity, which will be available to operators of healthcare and socio-healthcare facilities. This is fully reflected in the mission of the healthcare division of WM Capital to make health and prevention easy to access and within everyone's reach. "

The press release is available on websites www.wmcapital.it and www.boxdellasalute.com
